Dear Professor [REDACTED] 25X1A5a

It was a great pleasure to have the benefit of your advice and counsel during your recent visit to our shop. All of us felt it was like a breath of fresh air to have the opportunity to have our work reviewed by you and your associates.

I am writing to you today because it is my turn to take over the recruiting visit to [REDACTED] this fall. Together with Mr. [REDACTED] our local representative, I plan to be at [REDACTED] on the 26th, 27th and 30th of October. We will be interested in talking to capable economists at all levels of experience and training who would be interested to hear what the Central Intelligence Agency has to offer. Our past experience has shown that if it is possible to make a talk to groups of students, and to follow this with individual interviews, that a considerable amount of time is saved. If this kind of an arrangement could be made, we would be most grateful.

We would appreciate your recommendations to persons who appear to be particularly well qualified for our type of work, since we will especially want to see those whom you personally recommend.

Sincerely yours,
